

Answer Key Capsule 4

1.2.1 Using the information presented on:

<https://www.bloomberg.com/features/2016-how-did-i-get-here/sue-desmond-hellmann.html>

Solve the following exercise:

Use the Wh questions below to complete the questions below.

What kind of drugs	Who	How many	Where	When	What	Why
--------------------	-----	----------	-------	------	------	-----

Questions.

1. How many sisters do you have?
2. Why didn't you become an orthopedic?
3. What does your husband do?
4. When did you work as a chief resident of Internal Medicine?
5. What kind of drugs are now important for cancer?
6. Where did you study your highschool?
7. Who do you work with in the Foundation?

1.2.2 Complete column A with the questions you completed above, and match each question to its correct answers. Use the information on the website mentioned in 1.2.1.

Column A: Questions	Match then number to the letter	Column B: Answers
1. How many sisters do you have?	1 b	a) From 1982 to 1989.

2. Why didn't you become an orthopedic?	2 d	b) I had 2.
3. What does your husband do?	3 f	c) Rituxan, Herceptin, Avastin, Tarceva.
4. When did you work as a chief resident of Internal Medicine?	4 a	d) Because it involved a lot of coordination.
5. What kind of drugs are now important for cancer?	5. c	e) At Bishop Manogue
6. Where did you study your highschool?	6. e	f) He's an infectious disease doctor.
7. Who do you work with in the Foundation?	7. g	g) With Bill and Melinda Gates.